Letter From MICHAEL

Friends & Torah Fans,

My trip to Jerusalem this past summer changed everything we know about the Temple Mount — and at Passover 2018 I will share with you what was discovered. This exciting information forever puts to rest the debate of the Temple Mount's true location. It obliterates the denial of Israel's title deed to the Temple Mount itself and, in effect, the future claim to all the land from the Euphrates to the Nile.

The story begins with a long-forgotten scale model of the Temple Mount that was built to document discoveries made during excavations at the site. The model was, ironically, commissioned by Muslims — the Ottoman Turks. It was constructed by German archaeologist Conrad Schick for display at the Ottoman pavilion at the 1873 World Fair in Vienna. The recent resurrection and disassembling of this scale model has revealed some shocking truths, including a subterranean temple cistern of more than two million gallons. This feature alone is crucial, as it proves that the foundation stones that remain in place to this day are indeed the footings of what was once Solomon's Temple, despite claims from others that the temple was located to the south. But there's an even greater discovery. The model also contains a peculiar, removable paving block on the Temple Mount surface, under which lies an unexplainable cavern — the sand hydraulic elevator shaft that was used to hide the Ark of the Covenant!

This thrilling discovery inspired me to bring the truth of Solomon's Temple, live and fully functional, to our Passover 2018 celebration from March 30 to April 1. We are now putting the finishing touches on large-scale, fully-functioning replicas of the hollow, sand hydraulic pillars of Solomon's Temple, with which we will reenact the hiding of the Ark of the Covenant, using a truly accurate, large-scale model of the Ark. We are also building the temple menorah, the table of showbread, the altar of incense, and more. When you walk into our Passover event this year, you will feel like you are actually inside Solomon's Temple! This is something that has never been seen outside of Solomon's Temple itself!

This will be the Passover of your life. Bring your children. Bring your parents. Bring your friends and your enemies. This could be the eternity-changing event they have waited for their entire lives.

*See you
March 30!*

The Redemption of the Firstborn

The commandment to redeem the firstborn is not well understood and not often observed today...

“Consecrate to Me all the firstborn, whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and beast; it is Mine.”

- Exodus 13:2

“For all the firstborn among the children of Israel are Mine, both man and beast; on the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them to Myself.”

- Numbers 8:17

“Everything that first opens the womb of all flesh, which they bring to the LORD, whether man or beast, shall be yours; nevertheless the firstborn of man you shall surely redeem, and the firstborn of unclean animals you shall redeem. And those redeemed of the devoted things you shall redeem when one month old, according to your valuation, for five shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.”

- Numbers 18:15-16

We recognize the significance of redeeming your firstborn in preparation for a life of service to YeHoVaH. This is why we invite people to participate in the reenactment of this ancient Israelite ceremony at our Passover celebration.

The Mikveh

At Passover 2018 we will provide the opportunity for a Mikveh (akin to baptism). As Christians, we were taught the Westernized concept of baptism: A once-in-a-lifetime act that we perform when we first accept our Savior. But the true, biblical practice of a “mikveh” is so much more.

Mikveh literally means “gathering of waters”. A mikveh can be performed many times throughout a person’s life to symbolize any radical change in their lives.

“In that day a fountain shall be opened for the house of David and for the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness.”

- Zechariah 13:1

“John came baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.”

- Mark 1:4

“Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.”

- Psalm 51:2

“Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.”

- Psalm 51:7

“Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean; put away the evil of your doings from before My eyes. Cease to do evil.”

- Isaiah 1:16

There are so many other activities that will take place at Passover this year.
We hope you are able to join us!

What is Passover?

Historically, Passover is the day YeHoVaH delivered the children of Israel from Egyptian bondage. Exodus 12:1-13 details the account of Passover.

Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, <sup>2</sup> “This month shall be your beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year to you. <sup>3</sup> Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying: ‘On the tenth of this month every man shall take for himself a lamb, according to the house of his father, a lamb for a household. <sup>4</sup> And if the household is too small for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his house take it according to the number of the persons; according to each man’s need you shall make your count for the lamb. <sup>5</sup> Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats. <sup>6</sup> Now you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the same month. Then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at twilight. <sup>7</sup> And they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel of the houses where they eat it. <sup>8</sup> Then they shall eat the flesh on that night; roasted in fire, with unleavened bread and with bitter herbs they shall eat it. <sup>9</sup> Do not eat it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted in fire—its head with its legs and its entrails. <sup>10</sup> You shall let none of it remain until morning, and what remains of it until morning you shall burn with fire. <sup>11</sup> And thus you shall eat it: with a belt on your waist, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. So you shall eat it in haste. It is the LORD’s Passover.

<sup>12</sup> ‘For I will pass through the land of Egypt on that night, and will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD. <sup>13</sup> Now the blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you; and the plague shall not be on you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

Isn’t Passover just for the Jews?

NO! Exodus 12:14 states, “...you shall keep it as a feast to the LORD throughout your generations. You shall keep it as a feast by an everlasting ordinance.” When God spoke the ordinance, it was to all the children of Israel, not just the tribe of Judah. That includes you and all believers.

Passover in Prophecy

The original Passover was, of course, the night of the tenth plague when the Israelites were enslaved in Egypt. Every firstborn in every household that was not “set apart” by the blood of a lamb on the doorpost of their homes died (Exodus 12). It’s easy to see how this event prophesied the sacrifice of our Messiah — without his shed blood on the doorposts and lintels of our heart, we are not set apart, and thus condemned to death like the Egyptians.

Indeed, Passover was fulfilled with Yeshua’s sacrifice and resurrection. In fact, he literally fulfilled ALL of the prophetic shadow pictures embedded in the Passover in perfect sync with events as they happened in the Temple:

- On the tenth day of the month, the very day the Passover lamb was selected, Yeshua rode into Jerusalem on a donkey. This is the announcement that Yeshua is the Passover Lamb. As the people were all choosing their Passover lambs, YeHoVaH orchestrated this declaration of THE Passover Lamb.
- A few days later, after his last meal with his disciples, which happened the evening before the Passover lamb was sacrificed, Yeshua was arrested.
- Throughout the next day, as people prepared for their meals that night, he was questioned, beaten, mocked, and ridiculed, but officially declared faultless (John 19:6). Just as the Passover lamb was to be without flaw (Exodus 12:5), so was THE Lamb, the Messiah, to be flawless. Finally, the people called for Yeshua’s crucifixion.
- At the very moment the Passover lambs were being sacrificed, the land became dark. Yeshua recited Psalm 22, and then, as the final lamb was sacrificed in the Temple, he cried “IT IS FINISHED,” bowed his head, and gave up his spirit, paying our debt as the ultimate sacrificed Lamb.

Year after year, the sacrifice of lambs was the shadow picture of a substitution for the price we owed for breaking the blood covenant with the Almighty. Finally, the Messiah came as THE substitution, redeemed us, and renewed the blood covenant.

The events of Passover served as a prophecy for the Messiah’s sacrifice — the day the blood of “THE” Lamb redeemed us from sin. Passover is the ultimate celebration of our deliverance from sin (Egypt) through the sacrifice and resurrection of our Passover Lamb, Messiah Yeshua!

THE HAND & THE HEEL

WHY WAS JACOB'S HAND ON ESAU'S HEEL?

In the story of Jacob and Esau, Jacob is holding his brother's heel at birth — but why? Some say it was to trip up Esau and that Jacob was a deceiver. But is Jacob really the liar and cheat that he has been made out to be?
