OCTOBER PRAYER CALENDAR

ONE OF THE MOST POWERFUL WEAPONS WE HAVE AS BELIEVERS IS PRAYER! JOIN WITH US AS WE PETITION THE ALMIGHTY IN UNISON EACH DAY IN OCTOBER FOR THESE REQUESTS FROM OUR ONLINE PRAYER PAGE:

OCTOBER 1: "Pray that my grandmother could heal from her debilitating issues, to be free from mental and physical pain, and to be in a good relationship with the Father if these are her last days." - Anonymous

OCTOBER 2: "I create websites and graphic designs and need work. Please pray that I can get some work. Thank-you." - Winston

OCTOBER 3: "The political turbulence in the US is causing me great stress and all I hope for is a peaceful resolution. I am trying to remain optimistic, but it feels like I am always trying to climb out of a hole. I'm feeling a bit lost right now. I pray for faith and wisdom." - Sarah

OCTOBER 4: "Please pray for my son and his wife, in less than a year they have had 3 miscarriages. She is pregnant again but has tested positive for Covid-19. She called me and asked for prayer." - Anonymous

OCTOBER 5: "I have struggled for years, since I was 16 to quit smoking; it's the bane of my existence, I need prayer warriors to pray that Yah will help me work through this addiction." - Shayne

OCTOBER 6: "Prayer for understanding, spiritual strength, opportunities to produce more fruit, and a wife for a best friend." - Anonymous

OCTOBER 7: "A relative of ours has a son, Renee, 16 years old. We found out yesterday that he has leukemia. Please pray as Ruach leads for Renee and his family." - Helen

OCTOBER 8: "Please pray for my sister Victoria who is greatly suffering with a brain deterioration disease. Please also pray for me; my son went to glory and it has been agony for me without him. Thank you and shalom." - Monica

OCTOBER 9: "Please pray for Byron who had brain cancer surgery. He asked prayer warriors to especially pray for both his legs as he has had blood clots." - Janette

OCTOBER 10: "For over a year now I've been dealing with migraines and light sensitivity. The last couple weeks have been the worst. If y'all can pray for me please do." - Marshall

OCTOBER 11: "My son decided for himself that he is really my daughter. We request your prayers to help this 21-year-old man turn to YahovaH and return to living a life as a man." - Lilly

OCTOBER 12: "Please help me in prayer to endure the temptation of sexual perversion. I am assaulted with thoughts and feelings of this form of sin that I can hardly resist." - Emilio

OCTOBER 13: "My friends Chris and Hollie are homeless, living in a tent with their 4-year-old son. They need our prayers; it's been once obstacle after another for them." - Bonnie

OCTOBER 14: "I need directions to endure YeHoVaH's will. What satan intends for evil YeHoVaH will turn into good. Please stand with me for a hearing heart, to endure and rest. Thank you!" - Kay

OCTOBER 2021 ROOD REVIEW THE LATTER RAIN

On Sunday, October 12 in the year 27 CE, Yeshua was celebrating the "Last Great Day" on the Temple Mount with his disciples. This event is commonly misinterpreted as the eighth day of Sukkot; really, it is a High Sabbath apart from Sukkot, immediately following the seven-day festival. To the casual pew-warmer, Yeshua's actions of that day may seem random and inconsequential. On the contrary; what he did had definite purpose with prophetic ramifications, as recorded in John 7:37-43:

"In the Last Great Day of the Feast, Yeshua stood up and cried out, "If any man thirst, let him come to me, and drink. He that believes on me, as the Scripture has said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water." (But this he spoke of the Spirit, which those who believe in him should receive, for the Ruach Kodesh was not yet given, because Yeshua was not yet glorified.) Many of the people who heard him speak said, "Truth, this is The Prophet." Others said, "This is the Messiah!" But some said, "Shall Messiah come out of Galilee? Has not the Scripture said that the Messiah comes from the seed of David, out of David's home town of Bethlehem?" So there was a division among the people."

So why all the ruckus? Why was there a division and why would Yeshua cry out like that? It was a perfectly calculated moment in time for Yeshua to reveal who he was through a well-known, first-century cultural event: the Water Libation ceremony. This ceremony, held annually on the Temple Mount on the Last Great Day (a.k.a. Shemini Atzeret) focuses on a prayer for rain. By his actions at this ceremony, Yeshua was prophetically proclaiming the future reality of the latter rain – or double portion outpouring of the Holy Spirit that will transpire during the future fulfillment of the Fall Feasts of YeHoVaH.

This later outpouring will transpire as an intermediate fulfillment of the Fall Feast of YeHoVaH in which the 144,000 will participate. Nothing in Scripture is random. Everything Yeshua did had purpose and significance. If you see something in the Bible you don't understand, search it out, for "it is the glory of YeHoVaH to conceal things and the glory of kings (that's you) to search things out."
