THE MIRACLE OF ISRAEL

We study the history of ancient Israel in the Bible, but how much do we know about the history of modern Israel?

A Military Intelligence veteran for almost 30 years who holds graduate degrees in International Relations and History, Al McCarn knows a thing or two about the world's conflicts and its history. And as a founding member of B'ney Yosef North America, he is now working to build bridges between Jews and Christians.

The Miracle of Israel with Al McCarn examines how Israel got here, why it is so significant, where the world is going next, and how we all play a role in orchestrating YeHoVaH's end-time plan for the Holy Land.

Throughout the centuries, enemies have gone to war over the worthiest of causes, and yet, all of these causes fade into pages of history. So why do we fight?

Al McCarn served as a Military Intelligence officer with the United States Army and comes from a long line of military men. But his greatest tour of duty was not to serve America. It was to serve his family, just as his enemies were doing.

The Warrior's Kingdom Calling sounds the alarm to turn our attention to the real enemy - not our fellow man - but the adversary who attempts to defeat us by causing us to fight each other.

Everything To YeHoVaH

ROOD REVIEW
APRIL 2023

Following Passover is the Feast of Unleavened Bread, a seven-day feast during which nothing is eaten that contains leaven. This is a commemoration of the exodus when the Israelites fled Egypt, leaving without enough time to wait for their bread to rise.

During the Feast of Unleavened Bread there is always a weekly Sabbath (sundown Friday to sundown Saturday). The day after the Sabbath we are told to bring the "first fruits" of the harvest (the first ripe barley in the field) and raise it as a wave offering; this is the Day of First Fruits.

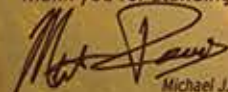

Leviticus 23 details how, in Temple times, the people were to bring a sheaf of grain to the priest on the Day of First Fruits. The priest would wave the sheaf before the Almighty. This offering was to be made of the "First Fruits" of the barley harvest; no other grain was to be harvested until the First Fruits offering was brought to the Almighty.

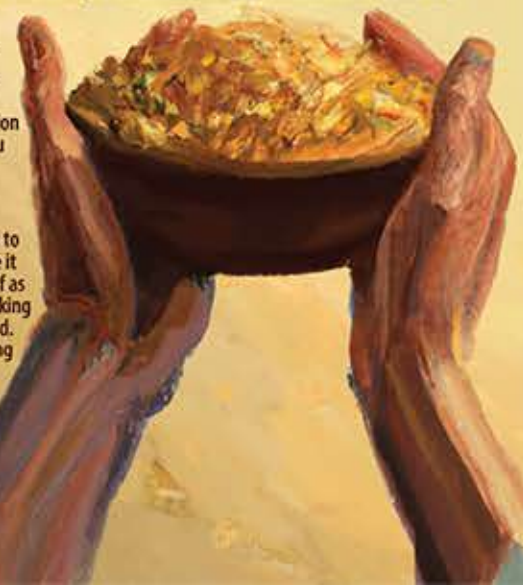

What makes this offering so significant is that it was given from the first ripe parts of the harvest - they didn't know if the rest of the crop would mature or if it would succumb to pests, weeds, or weather. Quite literally, they gave everything to YeHoVaH before keeping anything for themselves! As such the First Fruits offering was a "faith" offering. Given without reservation, it demonstrated that YeHoVaH came first in the worshipper's life and heart.

Though there is no temple to which we can bring our offering today, we can still give of our vocational increase, just as the Israelites gave of their agricultural increase. The motivation remains the same: It is a declaration that you trust the Almighty to provide for you throughout the coming year.

If you feel that this ministry provides you and others with the message of truth that comes first in your life, we would be honored to accept your First Fruits offering. We will wave it wholeheartedly and with faith on your behalf as we provide the answers to those who are looking for answers in religion that they just can't find. Your First Fruits offering is a gift that will bring the truth to someone for the first time.

Thank you for standing with us.

"My twin sister Larisa decided that she needs more of Yeshua in her life; it caught me off guard. I was worried that something bad had happened, but to my relief, she told me that people keep saying that we are in the last days and she wants to do something right before is too late.

"We prayed together, I anointed with oil, and I declared that she is in Yeshua's hand and nothing and no one can take her away from him; we are adopted, chosen, forgiven, redeemed, and sealed (Ephesians 1). Then I pronounced the Aaronic blessing over her in Hebrew and English and gave thanks to our Abba for this joy.

"My heart is moved by this. I'm so thankful to YeshuVaH! He is listening to my prayers and has honored my fasting concerning my family. Praise YeshuVaH!"

- Herson

"I remember the first time I encountered Michael Rood. I was in college, browsing YouTube videos and came across one of his teachings. I thought, "This guy is nuts keeping the law of Moses." Fast forward eight years later and I'm listening to Michael as the spirit leads me away from Protestantism and towards Hebraic understanding.

"I no longer hold to all the pagan holidays. I am overjoyed to have had the spirit lead me and I am grateful for my Hebraic family and Michael's ministry for helping me to find the lost coin I'd been searching for so long.

"Thank you, A Rood Awakening! Shalom and blessings to you!"

THE GREATEST PASSOVER STORY NEVER TOLD

We all know the events of Yeshua's Passover sacrifice and resurrection, but there are things that went on behind the scenes that most believers are unaware of. From sources around the world, Michael Rood compiled a unique timeline of Passover events in The Chronological Gospels Bible – it's the only record of its kind in the world!

Here are a few key points from that timeline. You can find a complete record in the commentary notes on pages 221-259 of The Chronological Gospels Bible.

Judas's Blood Money

Upon learning of Yeshua's death sentence, Yehudas (Judas) returns the betrayal money and immediately goes and "hangs" himself on his own sword in the very field that he had purchased by stealing from the disciples' common purse. The priests refuse to deposit the blood money that Yehudas returned to the Temple treasury, and they later decide to buy the potter's field for a gentile burial plot – the same field that was previously owned by the deceased Yehudas. The potter's field, being stained with the suicide of Yehudas, earned the name "The Field of Blood."

The Via Dolorosa

The Via Dolorosa in Jerusalem is a Constantinian fantasy. The streets Yeshua walked are buried under thirty feet of debris. Not to mention, he traveled in the opposite direction from the Antonia fortress to get to the crucifixion site north of the city wall.

The Sabbath vs The High Sabbath

The casual reader, unlearned in the Torah, assumes that any mention of the Sabbath is always referring to the 7th day of the week. However, every Feast of YeshuVaH begins with and concludes with a High Sabbath – regardless of the day of the week upon which it falls. This High Sabbath (the day before which Yeshua was crucified) fell at sundown, nearing the end of Wednesday. The Passover lambs were sacrificed on a Wednesday that year – and so was Yeshua.

The Sabbath Resurrection

After spending three days and three nights in the grave, Yeshua arose from the grave "on the third day" after his burial. The resurrection transpired on the weekly Sabbath. When Miriam returned to the grave, "early the first day of the week (aka Sunday)," "while it was still dark," the grave was empty. Yeshua had already risen late the previous day (Saturday evening).
