

Seclusion of Our High Priest

ROOD REVIEW

»»» APRIL 2024

During the Feast of Unleavened Bread there is always a weekly Sabbath (sundown Friday to sundown Saturday). The day after the Sabbath we are told to bring the “first fruits” of the harvest (the first ripe barley in the field) and raise it as a wave offering; this is the Day of Firstfruits — the day on which, after the resurrection of Yeshua, the bodies of many deceased “saints” arose and appeared to many (Matthew 27:52).

The resurrection of these saints is part of the fulfillment of the prophetic shadow pictures embedded in Yom haBikkurim – the Day of Firstfruits.

After the Passover lambs were put in the oven, the Cohen Gadol and his entourage went over the Kidron Valley bridge to the barley field on the side of the Mount of Olives, opposite the Temple Mount. They bound together 10 standing shocks of aviv barley, one omer each, and returned to the Temple. There, the Cohen Gadol remained in seclusion until the Firstfruits were harvested, processed, and presented in the Temple the morning following the weekly Shabbat — no one was to see him or touch him.

The harvest of the Firstfruits was done in the failing light after sunset at the end of the weekly Shabbat during the Feast of Unleavened Bread. This is when the saints in the graves arose in the sight of the thousands who were participating in the harvest of the Bikkurim. The barley was parched, ground, and baked during the night to prepare it for the Firstfruits offering in the morning.

The Cohen Gadol was in seclusion in the Temple Mount until after the Firstfruits were presented. Likewise, Yeshua allowed no one to touch him until after the Firstfruits of the saints were presented before the throne in Heaven by him personally as the eternal Cohen Gadol. It is not until after this fulfillment of the Bikkurim that the 24 elders are seen before the throne in Heaven.

Yeshua is indeed our eternal High Priest, and he proved it in every detail of his death and resurrection.

Charting the End

with Michael Rood

The Book of The Revelation has been a target of conjecture and commentary for centuries — because no one seems to understand it. But is it as complicated as we are making it out to be? Are we looking at it through the wrong lens?

Michael Rood, who considers The Book of the Revelation the simplest book in the Bible, shares his perspective, in this never-before-seen teaching (recorded in 2020), how to decipher John's vision with the Torah in mind, which foretold the entirety of Yeshua's life, death, and second coming in stunning detail.

Charting The End is visual explanation of the end of days — with a guide who knows the Christianity you came from and, more importantly, can lead you through the maze of assumptions to the simple truth of "the fifth Gospel."

Love Gift Collection April

Not one book of the Bible was written by Greeks – they were all written by Hebrews. So why do we accept that the best and most accurate translations of the New Testament come from the Greek? Good question.

In “The Best Translation,” Dr. Miles Jones and Patrick McGuire reveal a fascinating, new methodology to create the most accurate translation of The Book of the Revelation ever produced.

With the help of volunteers from more than a hundred countries who devoted millions of man-hours poring over four ancient Hebrew manuscripts of The Book of the Revelation, we now have the most exciting and surprising biblical translation in a generation!
