ROOD REVIEW

THE REAL INDEPENDENCE DAY

Dear Torah Fan,

July 2 is Independence Day in America. That's right, July 2 is Independence Day. It was on July 3, 1776 that John Adams wrote to his wife Abigail, saying:

"Yesterday the greatest question was decided, which ever was debated in America, and a greater, perhaps, never was or will be decided among men. A resolution was passed without one dissenting colony 'that these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent states, and as such they have, and of right ought to have, full power to make war, conclude peace, establish commerce, and to do all the other acts and things which other states may rightfully do.' ... You will see in a few days a declaration setting forth the causes which have impelled us to this mighty revolution and the reasons which will justify it in the sight of God and man."

John Adams was referring to our Declaration of Independence, originally dated July 2, 1776, in which we stated, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness."

As we celebrate the birth of our nation, let us also celebrate our Creator who endowed us with these rights. Let us remember our responsibility to follow him — remember, our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious God-fearing people. Thus, if God's people do not fast and pray for the exposure of the corruption in our nation's capital, there will be an apocalypse of the judgment on the very Republic that called upon Him for His divine favor and protection.

Men love darkness rather than light because their deeds are evil; when you see, day after day, the lies and deceit happening in the corridors of power in the United States, it appears that even our honest leaders cannot break through. Indeed, whether leaders or laity, man cannot break through this evil. We need Heaven to break through.

As we celebrate our nation, I urge you to recognize this as our opportunity to save our republic based on God-given rights and responsibilities. So, I'm calling upon all of you to fast and to pray; may YeHoVaH be glorified as we step out and hold on to his promises. May we see the Almighty work in our nation as he exposes the darkness.

See you when the smoke clears.
