OCTOBER 2024

Anticipating The Promise

Sukkot, or the Feast of Tabernacles, arrives this year at sunset, Friday, October 18. It is a reminder to us of the Israelites encamped in the wilderness after leaving Egypt. They tabernacled in tents, living off of the Almighty's promise of a new land, all their own — but Sukkot is not just a reminder.

Prophecy is fulfilled by and through Sukkot. It is a promise from our Creator that he has provided for us, that he has laid out a path to redemption and eternity for us. That promise is embodied in the Messiah, who tabernacled with us for a time and gave his life for ours.

Yeshua was born in a sukkah much like the ones the Israelites inhabited in the wilderness. He is the fulfillment of God's promise to his people to save them, not just from slavery, but from the wages of sin and from death. While on earth, Yeshua taught the people how to be YeHoVaH's people again, and bridged the gap between us and the Creator.

Every single year since the Israelites left Egypt, on the 15th day of the 7th month, this feast has held the place for prophecy fulfilled. This feast has held the hope and expectation of our gathering to begin a new life of promise. It came with Yeshua's birth and will come again, fulfilled in the promise of being with our Messiah at the Marriage Supper of the Lamb.

Remember that during this Feast of the LORD, for so many years, YeHoVaH's people have stood in anticipation of a fulfilled promise. Know that in 3 B.C.E. that promise was fulfilled in Yeshua's birth during this very feast, and that in the not too distant future, will be fulfilled to completeness. You are linked, through this feast, to the Israelites, to the Messiah, to the Father, to eternity.

How to Celebrate The Fall Feasts of The LORD

The Fall Feasts of the LORD begin with Yom Teruah (The Day of Trumpets), a prophecy of Yeshua's second coming. Yom Kippur (The Day of Atonement) and the Feast of Sukkot are prophetic shadow pictures of "Judgment Day" and other end time events fulfilled as per The Book of The Revelation, the "15th Gospel".

FALL FEAST #1 Yom Teruah Tishri 1

Yom Teruah is the first fall feast – it marks the start of the fall feast season. This year, Yom Teruah will begin at sunset, Friday, October 4, 2024. Teruah means to make a loud noise, which is why Yom Teruah is also called the "Day of Trumpets" or even "Day of Shouting." Yom Teruah recalls the day the Almighty shouted down the 10 commandments to the people from atop Mount Sinai.

Yom Teruah is a unique feast as it is the only one that falls on the first day of a biblical month. This means we have to wait for the first sliver of the moon to be sighted to begin the day, so we don't know exactly when the feast will start. This is what Yeshua was referring to when he said that "no man will know the day or the hour" of his return; indeed, his return is the fulfillment of Yom Teruah.

FALL FEAST #2 Yom Kippur Tishri 10

Not a feast per se but a fast, on Yom Kippur, we are told to do no work whatsoever and to "afflict our souls" or "deny ourselves." This year, Yom Kippur will begin at sunset, Sunday, October 13, 2024. This is most often taken to mean fasting, or not eating. Most people who observe Yom Kippur do not eat or drink from sunset to sunset. The point of fasting is to help us focus on things that are more important than our body's desire for food. Our relationship with our Creator is the most important in our lives.

In the last days, Yom Kippur marks the end of YeHoVAH's wrath upon the earth — the righteous are spared from this wrath as they will have been gathered to Messiah. Once the Almighty's wrath is ended, it will be time for the wedding feast of Messiah and his people (the Feast of Sukkot).

FALL FEAST #3 Sukkot Tishri 15-21

The Feast of Sukkot is a week-long festival also known as the Feast of Tabernacles, Feast of the Ingathering, Feast of Booths, or simply Sukkot. During this feast we are to live in a temporary dwelling (a "sukkah" the singular form of "sukkot") as a remembrance of dwelling in tents when the children of Israel were wandering in the desert.

There is only one High Sabbath in the Feast of Sukkot, the first day of Sukkot. This year, the High Sabbath marking the commencement of Sukkot will begin at sunset, Friday, October 18, 2024. The day after the seventh day of Sukkot (Shemini Atzeret – see below) is also a High Sabbath. It is technically the day after Sukkot ends, but is often mistaken as part of the Sukkot festival.

The first day of the Feast of Tabernacles was the day that Yeshua was born. This is an intermediate fulfillment of the Feast. The final fulfillment will occur at the future ingathering of the harvest, when Yeshua returns to reign on Earth.

FALL FEAST #4 Shemini Atzeret Tishri 22

Shemini Atzeret (Tishri 22) is commonly considered the eighth day of Sukkot but it is actually a separate, High Sabbath of its own. It marks "The Last Great Day" on which Yeshua will return to rule the Earth with the Torah and a rod of iron. This year, the High Sabbath of Shemini Atzeret will begin at sunset, Friday, October 25, 2024.
