Not Many Are Willing

In Deuteronomy 18, we are told that instead of land, the Levites' inheritance is the tithe. They get to minister to the people and for doing so, they get a tenth. Even if they go on a mission to preach in the cities of Israel, they have the guarantee of being cared for by patrons who welcome them in and give them a tithe in exchange for ministering.

Yeshua was not a Levitical priest, he was from the tribe of Judah. But he was, and is forever, the High Priest after the order of Melchizedek — a priesthood that precedes and supersedes the Aaronic priesthood. Just as the Levites were taken care of, Yeshua ministered and was taken care of.

This is how we run the ministry today. Those who have been blessed by this ministry take care of us in return, standing with us to get the Word out to the world. They are the ones who keep the lights on, who provide for our families on staff, who ensure that our work can continue to the next generation. I want to thank you for being a part of this ministry, for helping us to help you reach out to the world, teaching what Yeshua taught.

You can help by taking what you learn from us and telling it at every opportunity; in 5 minutes in line at the grocery store, in 5 hours at a Bible study, in 5 days or 5 years to your children and grandchildren. Learn everything Yeshua did and everything he said and teach it to others. Not many are willing to do that — but we know you are.

We know you're willing to help us financially as well. Thank you for having a generous heart like those who cared for the Levites and for Yeshua.

See you when the smoke clears

The Healing Power

Scott Laird, ND

For the last few years, I have included 2,000 to 3,000 mg of vitamin C in my daily routine (divided into 1,000 mg doses throughout the day to maximize absorption). It may sound like a lot, mainly because we are conditioned to accept the "% Daily Value" we read on the "Nutrition Facts" panels on packaged foods. Incidentally, it only takes a miniscule 90 mg per day to achieve the "100% Daily Value" of vitamin C. So why take 3,000 mg?

What most people do not realize is that those "Daily Value" percentages are just enough to avoid a deficiency. If a person is already deficient in a certain nutrient, ingesting enough to reach 100% is not going to help the deficiency. These recommendations are, essentially, just enough to keep a person alive! Yet, in today's nutrient-draining, stress-filled world, most people are deficient in at least one nutrient or another — and vitamin C is an extremely important one! It heals bruises, wounds, fractures, and scar tissues, strengthens blood vessels, supports a healthy appetite and stable moods, and supports a regular heartbeat, good digestion, and healthy levels of hemoglobin.

Ironically, as all-powerful as vitamin C may seem to be, it is very fragile when exposed to heat. So, processed foods and cooked foods that contained vitamin C before they were cooked or processed likely won't have much benefit. Rule of thumb? Eat foods rich in vitamin C raw, and make sure that any vitamin C supplement comes from a whole food source. If it does, it will say so right on the supplement facts panel.

The Aleph-Tav Body System

with Dr. Alphonzo Monzo

In the beginning, YeHoVaH spoke our universe into existence. The frequency of his voice created everything; and the theory that he spoke in Hebrew may have more truth to it than we realize!

Could we harness that same creative power of the Hebrew language to restore our health?

As Dr. Alphonzo Monzo explains, The Aleph-Tav Body System is an electromagnetic, touch-point telecommunications system that was known to the ancients and lost to time. Using specific combinations of Hebrew letters, you can use this system to control all the information needed for your body to function optimally and even heal itself!
