The Silent Weeks

A Time for Reflection and Action

Between weeks 35 and 42 of Yeshua's 70-week ministry, the Gospels fall silent. No new teachings, no miracles, no confrontations are recorded. Why? Because 35 pairs of disciples were out ministering in the villages and cities of Israel. Those who would later write the Gospels weren't idle — they were on assignment, doing the work of the Kingdom.

This silence isn't a gap in Scripture; it's a revelation. It shows what happens when followers of Yeshua step out to do what they've been taught. When YeHoVaH seems silent, it doesn't mean He has stopped working. It's often our time to act on the last word He gave us.

So what are we doing when it feels like the Almighty isn't speaking? Are we continuing in His will or waiting for another sign? Are we spreading the good news or sitting still until we feel inspired again? The disciples didn't wait; they went out to heal, proclaim repentance, and announce that the Kingdom of Heaven had drawn near.

We must ask ourselves: Are we anticipating the moment when we'll stand before Yeshua and report what we've done with the time and truth He has entrusted to us? Have we used the silence to deepen our faith and strengthen our obedience?

Let us, like those early disciples, be found working when the Master returns. And as we continue this mission, I ask you to support A Rood Awakening! International. The work of the Kingdom never stops — whether heaven thunders or whispers.

Together, let's keep proclaiming the Truth, restoring the message, and preparing the way for Yeshua's return.

See you when the smoke clears,

Michael J. Rood

Charting the End

with Michael Rood

The Book of The Revelation has been a target of conjecture and commentary for centuries — because no one seems to understand it. But is it as complicated as we are making it out to be? Are we looking at it through the wrong lens?

Michael Rood, who considers The Book of the Revelation the simplest book in the Bible, shares his perspective (recorded in 2020) on how to decipher John's vision with the Torah in mind, which foretold the entirety of Yeshua's life, death, and second coming in stunning detail.

Charting The End is a visual explanation of the end of days — with a guide who knows the Christianity you came from and, more importantly, can lead you through the maze of assumptions to the simple truth of "the fifth Gospel."
