Rood Review

Restoring the Hebrew roots of the Christian faith
December 2025

As we approach the season of Hanukkah, we are reminded that in one particular year in the first century CE, this "celebration of light" became far more than lighting candles and oil lamps and recounting the Maccabees' victory. On this particular Hanukkah, the Light of the world — Yeshua the Messiah — revealed who He truly was... but only to those who had eyes to see.

As recorded in The Chronological Gospels Bible, it was on the first day of Hanukkah that Yeshua healed a man who had been blind from birth. Think about that! On the very day that commemorates the rededication of the Temple — the restoration of light after darkness — Yeshua restored sight to one who had never seen light at all. The Almighty is truly the master of drama!

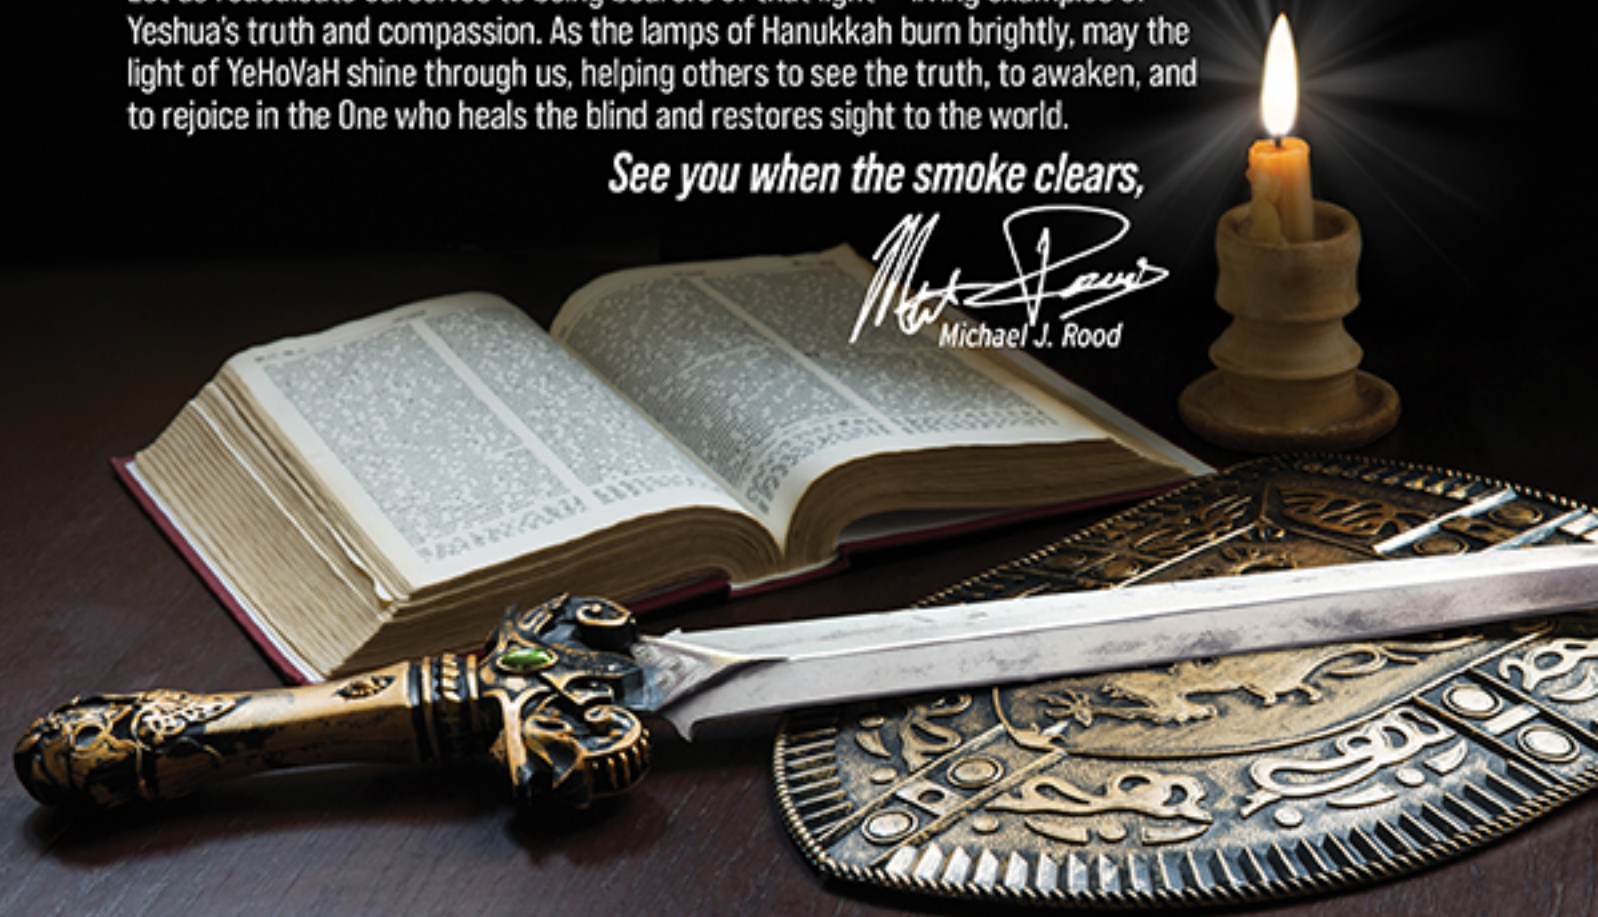

Blinded by their takanot and ma'asim — their pollution and perversion of YeHoVaH's Word — the religious leaders of that day could not see it. Though they claimed to know the Scriptures, they were blind to the One who stood before them, the living Temple of YeHoVaH. But the man who received his sight could see clearly: "One thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see." (John 9:25)

This Hanukkah, we are called to do the same — to shine His light into the lives of those who are still blind to the truth of YeHoVaH and His Messiah. Many have been blinded by tradition, deception, or fear, but the light of truth can open their eyes.

Let us rededicate ourselves to being bearers of that light — living examples of Yeshua's truth and compassion. As the lamps of Hanukkah burn brightly, may the light of YeHoVaH shine through us, helping others to see the truth, to awaken, and to rejoice in the One who heals the blind and restores sight to the world.

See you when the smoke clears,

Michael J. Rood

Big News! Plans! Support! things!

Dear Torah Fan,

As 2025 draws to a close, I find myself looking back in awe — not at what we have done, but at what YehovaH has done through partners like you.

This year, A Rood Awakening! International has reached further, faster, and deeper than ever before with the true message of Yeshua. And everywhere we look, lives are being transformed.

In Central America, a powerful testimony shook our entire team. In a recent YouTube video, "Chronological Fire: How One Book Rekindled My Faith," a young man in Guatemala shared how one of our teaching books opened his eyes to the Messiah in a way he had never understood before. He went from deep doubt... to boldly proclaiming Yeshua's redemption.

In Ecuador, another video — "Discover the POWERFUL Tool That's Changing Lives in Ecuador" — features a church leader whose congregation is now reaching remote villages with the Gospel of the Kingdom using our translation tools. He told us, "This work is equipping our people to share the truth with confidence."

These are not isolated stories. They are part of a growing wave.

The message is working. Hearts are opening. Lives are changing.

But I need to be honest with you; 2025 has also been one of the most difficult years this ministry has ever faced.

The demand for teaching, translations, and international outreach is increasing rapidly... yet the financial pressures of this year have stretched us in ways we did not expect.

Even so, YehovaH keeps opening doors — doors into new countries, new languages, and new opportunities to share the truth of His Word. But we cannot walk through those doors without you.

To move boldly into 2026 and continue this vital work, we urgently need your partnership before December 31.

Your year-end gift will directly strengthen the teaching, translation, outreach, media, and global discipleship efforts that are changing lives today.

Stand with us at this critical moment!

Your generosity — whether online at ARoodAwakening.tv/donate, by mail using the enclosed envelope, or by calling 888.766.3610 — will make an eternal difference. Every gift matters. Every dollar advances the Kingdom.

Every life changed is a victory you helped make possible.

Thank you for your faithfulness, your compassion, and your heart for truth.

In Yeshua's service,

Tedd Clayton, CEO

GOD'S DIVORCE

with Dr. Doug Hamp

What if the Gospel you know is only half the story? In God's Divorce, Dr. Doug Hamp reveals how the good news began at Sinai—a real marriage between God and Israel. When the covenant broke, a divine dilemma arose: how could God restore His Bride without breaking His own Torah?

Through the prophets and the mission of Yeshua, we see the promise of reunion—two houses becoming one flock under one Shepherd. Gentiles are grafted in, not replacing Israel, but joining her restored covenant family in Messiah's redemption story.

Pentecost becomes a vow renewal, not a product launch. The Spirit writes Torah on hearts, empowering joyful covenant faithfulness. Dr. Hamp shows that our calling is to live as one restored Bride—celebrating Shabbat, keeping the feasts, making peace, and preparing for the wedding to come.

The Three Temples of Hanukkah

with Matthew Vander Els

From the very beginning, YeHoVaH's deepest desire has been to dwell with His people. Every temple in the Bible, from Eden to the tabernacle to Solomon's Temple, declares the Creator's longing to unite heaven and earth through His presence.

Even creation itself was fashioned as a living temple, filled with His glory. But without His presence, a temple is lifeless – just as we are when His Spirit does not dwell within us.

In this special Hanukkah teaching, Matthew Vander Els reminds us that we were made to be YeHoVaH's dwelling place. To defile that temple, our very bodies and spirits, is to reject the purpose of creation itself: a means for the Almighty to dwell with his people in holiness.
